ISAIAH'S VISION

VERSE 1

The Great I am, seated on His throne

In splendor and majesty, his robe filled the temple

Seraphim surrounded him, exalting his pure holiness

While Creator God pondered man's unrighteousness

So sinful and rebellious, My word they would not heed

A willing messenger is all I need

CHORUS

I need someone to go

To let my people know

There's healing in repentance

God's offering a second chance

Open wide your blinded eyes

See his mighty works

Listen with receptive ears

His voice is calling you

Surrender your hearts to the Lord

When Noah built the ark, no rain nor clouds he saw

He trusted God and God himself came down and shut the door

The fIve foolish virgins did not prepare their lamps

When he bridegroom came and shut the door, they could not understand

Reject destructive complacency .embrace this life-giving urgency

Give up procrastinating, and prepare for eternity

CHORUS

I need someone to go

To let my people know

There's healing in repentance

God still offers a second chance

Open wide your blinded eyes

See his mighty works

Listen with receptive ears

His voice is calling you

Surrender your hearts to the Lord

BRIDGE

The fields are white with harvest

The day of the Lord approaches

Today is the day to be ready

Tomorrow is not guaranteed

Quit making excuses and putting it off

Dispel doubts and fears and indifference because

There's forgiveness waiting at the foot of the cross

Repent and believe in the Lord

Believe it or not, a momentous day is coming

Jesus will return to lead his children home

But there are those around us who have rejected Jesus

With callous hearts ,they cannot see, only He can save us

So tell your friends and neighbors , your sisters and your brothers

Tell your colleagues and your enemies, Jesus is the answer

The Son of God can set us free to live with him forever,

CHORUS

I need someone to go

To let my people know

There’s healing in repentance

God still offers a second chance

Open wide your blinded eyes

See his mighty works

Listen with receptive ears

His voice is calling you

Surrender your hearts to the Lord
